

I would just like you to know how we are getting on with the Guernsey milk. My grandchild, Jak, has not been given milk since my last delivery, which was before Christmas and his behaviour has been so bad that I have ordered more milk to be delivered!

He was so much better in all things whilst on the milk so it proves the benefit in continuing with it.

thanks again

Jenny